8. Fraud and Corruption

- 8.1 The Development Partner requires that Government or Recipients (including beneficiaries of the funds), as well as bidders, suppliers, contractors and their agents (whether declared or not), sub-contractors, sub-consultants, service providers or suppliers, and any personnel thereof, observe the highest standards of ethics during the procurement and execution of contracts. In pursuance of this policy, the Government:
- (a) defines, for the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:
 - (i) "Corrupt Practice" is the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting directly or indirectly of anything of value to influence improperly the actions of another party¹;
 - (ii) "Fraudulent Practice" is any act or omission, including a misrepresentation, that knowingly or recklessly misleads, or attempts to mislead, a party to obtain financial or other benefit, or to avoid an obligation²;
 - (iii) "Coercive Practice" is impairing or harming, or threatening to impair or harm, directly or indirectly, any party, or the property of the party to influence improperly the actions of a party³;
 - (iv) "Collusive Practice" is an arrangement between two or more parties, designed to achieve an improper purpose, including to influence improperly the actions of another party⁴;
 - (v) "Abuse" means theft, waste, or improper use of assets related to the DP- financed project activity, either committed intentionally or through reckless disregard;
 - (vi) "Conflict of Interest" means any situation in which a party has interests that could improperly influence that party's performance of official duties or responsibilities, contractual obligations, or compliance with applicable laws and regulations;

² For the purpose of this sub-paragraph, "party" refers to a public official; the terms "benefit" and "obligation" relate to the selection process or contract execution; and the "act or omission" is intended to influence the selection process or contract execution.

³ For the purpose of this sub-paragraph, "party" refers to a participant in the selection process or contract

- ⁴ For the purpose of this sub-paragraph, "parties" refers to participants in the procurement or selection process (including public officials) attempting either themselves, or through another person or entity not participating in the procurement or selection process, to simulate competition or to establish prices at artificial, non-competitive levels, or are privy to each other's bid prices or other conditions.
- (vii) "Obstructive Practice" is (a) deliberately destroying, falsifying, altering or concealing of evidence material to the investigation, or making false statements to investigators in order to materially impede an investigation into allegations of a corrupt, fraudulent, coercive or collusive practice by the competent Government and DP authority; and/or threatening, harassing or intimidating any party to prevent it from disclosing its knowledge of matters relevant to the investigation or from pursuing the investigation; or (b) acts intended to materially impede the exercise of the Government or DP inspection and audit rights;
 - (viii) "Integrity Violation" is any act, as defined under the DP Integrity Principles accepted by the Government, which violates the Anti-Corruption Policies, where applicable, including points (i) to (vii), stated above and the following: violations of the Government and DP sanctions, retaliation against whistle-blowers or witnesses, and other violations of the Anti-Corruption Policies, including failure to adhere to the highest ethical standards;
- (b) will reject a recommendation for award of the contract if it is determined that the firm or individual recommended for the award or any of its personnel, or its agents, or its sub-consultants, sub-contractors, service providers, suppliers and/or their employees have directly or indirectly engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, coercive, collusive or obstructive practices, or other integrity violations in competing for the contract in question;
 - (c) will cancel the portion of the financing allocated to a contract if it is determined at any time that representatives of the Government or of a beneficiary of the DP financing have engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, coercive, collusive or obstructive practices, or other integrity violations during the procurement or the execution of that contract, without the Government having taken timely and appropriate action satisfactory to the DP to remedy the situation;
 - (d) will sanction a firm or individual, at any time, in accordance with prevailing Government and/or DP sanctions procedures⁵, including by publicly declaring such firm or individual ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time: (i) to be awarded or otherwise benefit from a Government or a DP-financed contract, financially or in any other manner; (ii) to be a nominated⁶ sub-contractor, consultant, manufacturer or supplier, or service provider of an otherwise eligible firm being awarded a Government or a DP- financed contract; and (iii) to receive the proceeds of any loan made by the DP or otherwise to participate further in the preparation or implementation of any DP-financed project, if it is determined at any time that the firm or individual

⁵ A firm or an individual may be declared ineligible to be awarded a contract upon (i) completion of the sanctions proceedings as per its sanctions procedures, including inter alia: cross-debarment as agreed by DP and other International Financial Institutions; and (ii) as a result of temporary suspension or early temporary suspension in connection with an ongoing sanction's proceedings in accordance with the Government and DP guidelines.

- ⁶ A nominated sub-contractor, consultant, manufacturer or supplier, or service provider is one which has been either (i) included by the bidder in its pre-qualification application or bid because it brings specific and critical experience and know-how that allow the bidder to meet the qualification requirements for the particular bid; or (ii) appointed by the Government.

has engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, coercive, collusive or obstructive practices, or other integrity violations in competing for, or in executing, a DP-financed contract.

- 8.2 All bidders are required to complete the Statement on Ethical Conduct and Fraud and Corruption which can be found in Annex E and submit it with their quotation.
